Sunday, June 16 The Search for Happiness - Erin Newell

In a world where we hear about such awful things every time we tune in to media of any kind, it can feel wrong to be happy. Yet it is important to embrace the little moments of happiness, to revel in the joys of life, to let cheer into your heart and radiate it back into the world.

A Rhode Island native, Erin is a graduate of URI, with a BA in English and a BFA in Theater, who works in the technology industry. She is also a writer, a Ghost Tour guide, a Revolutionary War living history re-enactor, and an active member of this congregation, leading the First Unitarian chapter of Harry Potter and the Sacred Text.

Please Note!! As of Friday, June 14, Rev. Liz will be away for the summer. After 12 days in Transylvania with the Partner Church group, she will take her vacation and study time through mid-August. Rev. Liz's church email WILL NOT be monitored while she is away, so please do not send email to her. If you have a pastoral need, please contact Nancy in the church office (admin@firstunitarianprov.org, 401-421-7970). We have several people on call, including Kevin Carson and members of our Lay Ministry team, if you need anything while Liz is away.

- Church office summer hours are 9:00 am – 4:00 pm, beginning June 24. The office will be closed for summer break July 22 – August 2. Sunday services will continue at 10:00 am, and regularly scheduled evening meetings will happen during the break.

Feel free to contact Nancy if you want to get on Liz's calendar for the fall, or if you have any questions.
